CURES AND COMFORT FOR THE BED-RIDDEN.

—BY—

Holloway's Ointment.

THE wonderful Ointment acts like magic in relieving curing old sores, wounds, bad legs, ulcers, and eruptions of the skin; when rubbed on the surface it penetrates and purifies each tissue on its passage, and exerts the most wholesome influence over the internal structure by cleansing all internal fluids with which it comes in contact, and thereby promotes a sound and permanent cure.

Gout and Rheumatism.

To sufferers from rheumatic pains or aneurismal Gout this ointment will prove invaluable. After friction with warm water the soothing action of this Ointment is most remarkable; it seems at once to lessen inflammation, ease pain, reduce the swelling, restore natural circulation, and expel the disease. For the above complaints Holloway's Ointment and Pills are infallible.

Diphtheria, Bronchitis, Sore Throats, Coughs and Colds.

his class of diseases may be cured by rubbing the Ointment, three times a day, upon the throat, chest and back of the patient. It will soon penetrate and give immediate relief. In the stage of Lethargy, Colds and Bronchitis, this treatment may be followed with efficiency and safety—indeed, it has never been known to fail.

All Varieties of Skin Diseases, Scrofula and Scurvy.

This Ointment is a certain cure for Ringworm, Scrofula, and all diseases to which the human race is subject. They cannot be treated with a safer or more speedy remedy than Holloway's Ointment, assisted by his celebrated Pills, which act powerfully on the constitution and so purify the blood that these disorders are completely eradicated from the system, and a lasting cure obtained.

Dropsical Swellings.

Swelling of this dangerous and slightly complicated kind, frequently creeps upon us by stealth, and is often the forerunner of a more serious disease. The cause of the evil must be looked into the liver and stomach, therefore set to work earnestly by taking Holloway's famous Pills, which will gradually penetrate and in almost every case give immediate relief; but perseverance will be necessary to effect a cure.

Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammation.

These complaints are most distressing to both body and mind, and a delicate cure is required. The most successful treatment is to use Holloway's Ointment, which will gradually penetrate and in almost every case give immediate relief; but perseverance will be necessary to effect a cure.

Disorders of the Kidneys, Stone, and Gravel.

Are immediately relieved and ultimately cured if this Ointment be rubbed twice a day, until the small oil beads and the kidneys are thoroughly purified. The Ointment will gradually penetrate and in almost every case give immediate relief; but perseverance will be necessary to effect a cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

—OF—
The Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF the Mechanics' Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition, of that Association will be held some time in August, next, in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city.

Preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.

During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city, the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted, both for display and convenience of the public, of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water tight, being covered with a strong roof, so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufacture, Mechanics, or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit their productions, and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered, and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

By order of the Board of Directors,
HORACE D. DUNN, Cor. Secretary.

THE BRITISH COLONIST.
Monday Morning, July 27, 1868.
TO ADVERTISERS.
Transient Advertisements must be paid for in advance to insure insertion.
TO AGENTS.
Settlements of accounts will be required monthly, or the supply of papers will be discontinued. The daily and weekly issues will be furnished at the lowest cash rates and no exception will in future be made to this rule.

The North west.
Through the kindness of a leading firm of this city, we are enabled to present to our readers, a short account of the debate in Parliament; upon this important territory which was received by last mail from a member of the firm now in England. The discussion arose from Sir H. Verney, moving for a Royal Commission to be issued by Her Majesty to inquire into and report upon the capability of the territory lying between Lake Superior and the Pacific. The motion was discussed in Parliament by men of the right stamp, who wisely concluded the Commission was useless. The tone of the speeches with one exception, is of such a character that we regret they were not given more at length. It will be seen that the opinions of the different speakers are very decided upon the merits and advantages of the this territory, and the necessity of its being immediately placed under a satisfactory system of Government. We consider the expressions of Mr. Adderley as the mouthpiece of the majority quite correct. The question will soon be permanently settled, and on principles equally liberal, just, and satisfactory. The objections of Mr. Aytoun would have had weight had Canada remained under the old system of Colonial Government, but under the new system we consider they have none. They are evidently based upon old prejudices, and a misunderstanding of the order of things as they exist to-day. After all, however, there is really nothing in them of sufficient importance to require refutation, and so we leave them to be dealt with by the good sense and intelligence of the public. There can be little doubt now, we think, that the demands of Canada in this matter will be granted, and that no difficulties can spring from any other quarter to embarrass the negotiation pending with her and the Hudson Bay Company.

Items From English Papers.
A statement has been submitted to the Metropolitan Board of Works of the money which is required for the completion of the works now in progress, and for the carrying out of which powers are sought by the board, which has been forwarded to the Government on an application to that effect, and is as follows:—New streets from Blackfriars to the Mansion House; compensations, £227,000; engineering work, £56,000. North and South embankments; compensations, 250,000; engineering work, £790,000. Additional works; Park lane improvement, £125,000; Chelsea embankment, £236,000; Thames embankment approaches, £240,000; total, £2,025,000. Deduct cash balance, loan, and payment from St. Thomas's Hospital, £244,759. Net amount, £2,026,241. The estimated amount to be received from sale of land: Thames embankment, north, £76,250; southern embankments, £31,612; new streets to Abchurch Lane, £27,500. At the close of the year 1866 there were in England and Wales 283 railway companies whose lines were open for traffic, with a total mileage of 9701, of which 16 companies at one time owned, leased, or worked 8481 miles. In Scotland at the present period there were thirty-one companies with 2244 miles of railway open for traffic; and in Ireland there were thirty-nine companies, with a total mileage of 1009. Nine bills have been introduced during the present Session of Parliament, authorising amalgamations which, if carried out, will add 540 miles to our present railway system; and it is proposed to add eighty-five more by fourteen bills laid before Parliament containing provisions for working arrangements. The well known marine artist, J. W. Carmichael, died at Scarborough, in his sixty-ninth year. The deceased artist was a genial and warm hearted friend, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends and patrons. In 1854, during the war with Russia, he was the special artist of the Ill. News in the Baltic, and his graphic sketches formed a conspicuous feature of the illustrations of the war. Lord Monck has laid before the Canadian House of Commons the correspondence relating to the abduction of McDonnell by the United States officers. His Lordship censures Mr. Thornton, the English Minister at Washington, for accepting Mr. Seward's explanation and not demanding satisfaction. A great battle has taken place in Afghanistan between Sirdar Mahomed Yakob Khan, Governor of Herat, and the reigning Ameer. It resulted in a great victory for the former, who captured Kandahar, took the Ameer's brother prisoner, and proclaimed Sher Ali ruler of Afghanistan. At the recent arts examination at Apothecaries' Hall, Mrs. Isabel Thorne presented herself in company with sixty-seven gentlemen. Out of the sixty-seven candidates, forty-seven passed. Mrs. Thorne came out among the first six, and her papers were so excellent that the usual "five votes" examination was dispensed with. FRED PAYNE has removed his Cheap Shaving Shop to the opposite side of John's street, just above the Miner's Saloon.

Address to the Rev. A. C. Garrett.
The following highly complimentary address was presented to the Rev. A. C. Garrett, at Esquimalt on Friday evening last, on the eve of his departure for Nanaimo. The meeting having been called to order by the Chairman, T. S. Dobbin, Esq., Mr. Weller in a feeling and truly warm hearted manner expressed the sorrow of the community at Mr. Garrett's departure. The Chairman then read the address as follows:
Esquimalt, V.I., Jul 23, 1866.
To the Rev. A. C. Garrett, B. A.
REV. AND DEAR SIR—We the undersigned members of the Congregation of Saint Pauls, Esquimalt, and the inhabitants of the Parish, desire to express our concern and regret that the Lord Bishop of the Diocese has been pleased to appoint you to the Rectory of Nanaimo. During your connection with us a handsome and commodious church has been erected, an attentive congregation gathered and a considerable revenue raised for its support, results which speak of your untiring zeal and labour with much greater force than any words of ours. With feelings of unfeigned pleasure we place on record our very high appreciation of the marked ability of your pulpit ministrations, your gentlemanly bearing, your uniformly Christian deportment, your kindly sympathy for the sick and afflicted and the warm hearted interest both in our temporal and spiritual well being, which has ever distinguished your sojourn amongst us. We are well aware of the many trials and anxieties which have pressed upon you, chiefly in consequence of your self-denying efforts for our spiritual good, and should be deeply sensible of your esteem and deserving the censure of the world did we not retain affectionate remembrances of one who desire to return our warmest thanks to Mrs. Garrett for so ably presiding at the Harmonium, the loss of whose services will be much felt for the future.

On your departure you will carry with you our most sincere and affectionate regard for your future career, which we trust will be one of health, happiness and prosperity to yourself and family.
We are, Rev. and Dear Sir,
Your sincere friends and wellwishers,
T. Sydney Dobbin, Walter Brookman, Churchwardens. G. Weller, J. B. Thompson, Wm. Arthur, Wm. Sellick, Church Committee. Henry Perry, George F. Foster, P. Wakeman, John McKinnon, John T. Howard, Henry E. Wilby, Fred Williams, G. F. Hawkins, C. F. Green, Kenneth McKenzie, Jr., J. F. Tarte, Thomas Rabson, Richard Downer, George Bellamy, Thos. Dadds, John Russell, Thos. Waterhouse, Fred Stockham, J. B. Fisher, Arthur R. Green, J. H. Doane and many others.
Mr. Garrett replied in the following terms:—
MY DEAR CHRISTIAN FRIENDS—Your cordial and complimentary address cannot fail to touch the secret springs of feelings in my heart. To your own persistent zeal in the cause of the church and your extensive liberality in support of its institutions, far more credit is due than to any efforts of mine. I am conscious that my performances have fallen very far short of the lofty standard to which they should have attained; but yet, it is to me an occasion of sincere happiness that they have been acceptable to you. The substantial sympathy, the cheerful co-operation, the warm hearted interest which I have always received at your hands, will ever live among my most cherished recollections. I part from you with true and deep regret and pray you to accept my grateful and heartfelt thanks on behalf of myself and Mrs. Garrett for your many kindnesses and this unmerited expression of your affectionate esteem.
The reverend gentleman further addressed the meeting at some length in a tone of deep sincerity as its utterance was gracefully eloquent.
A purse filled by a few of his intimate friends, was then handed to the reverend gentleman by the Chairman, after which the meeting separated.
THE NATIVE AUSTRALIAN CRICKETERS. The Paramatta, Capt. Williams, is daily expected to arrive from Sydney with the Aboriginal Black Eleven from Australia. Before sailing the Black Eleven played a match with an eleven of the ARMY AND NAVY, with Caffyn in, in the presence of his Royal Highness Prince Alfred, and although the match was not played out, the blacks had much the best of it, having scored in their first innings 237 runs against 64 on the part of their antagonists. The names of the Aborigines are Bullocky, Tiger, Red Cap, Mullagh, Cuzens, King Cole, Dick-a-Dick, Pettet, Twopenny, Jim Crow, and Lawrence. At the conclusion of the match with the Army and Navy eleven, the blacks displayed their athletic powers to Prince Alfred—Mullagh jumped 5ft. 7in. running and Cuzens 3ft. 7in. standing. Dick-a-Dick threw a cricket ball 117 yards, and then exhibited marvellous dexterity in defending himself against numerous expert throwers, who pelted him with cricket balls at a range of but 20 yards, using in his defence, we are told, only a small shield and "a hanger"—whatever that may be. The Aboriginal Black Eleven are to play the first public match at the Oval ground on Monday and Tuesday in the Derby week. [They have since been beaten in one innings by the gentlemen of the Surrey Club.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

In this City, on the 26th inst., the wife of G. Hall of a daughter.

The Firemen's Picnic.

It is but little to say that this affair was looked forward to with much anticipation of pleasure, and that without a single exception it was one of the most successful things of the season. In point of numbers, respectability, harmony and amusement we have scarcely seen anything like it in the Colony, and we feel assured in saying so we but express the general sentiments of the public. The place selected is admirably adapted for such occasions; near to town, well shaded, with abundance of open ground for the sports and beautiful walks. At one time there must have been over 600 persons present, who threw off reserve and entered heart and soul into the different amusements provided. Thus we found His Honor Mr Justice Needham trying his muscle at "putting the shot," and the ex-Mayor, Mr Macdonald, carrying off the prize with the 16 lb. shot. Amongst the visitors present we observed Mrs Seymour, who remained upon the ground for several hours witnessing the sports and the dancing, and who appeared to enjoy the merry, happy scene around her very much. Mrs and Miss Needham, and a number of leading officials and private families, were present, and all partook of the delicious ices, fruits, wines, and other good things so liberally and judiciously provided by the firemen for their guests. His Excellency the Governor was so engaged in the early part of the day that he could not be present; but he drove down between 9 and 10 in the evening, attended by the Private Secretary and Lieutenant Commander Larcom, and was most cordially welcomed. On arriving the Governor was received by the Chief Engineer, Mr Kelly, and Assistant Chief, Mr Kriemler, and escorted to a tent provided especially for him, the band playing the National Anthem. His Excellency's health was drunk in a bumper, which compliment he acknowledged in a short and cheerful speech. He then should feel much pleasure in assisting the fireman out of his private purse as far as he was able at all times, and deeply regretted that out of the public funds, which he had to regard as more sacred than his own, he had not been able to render such assistance as the Fire Department deserved, and had a right to claim. He also expressed himself delighted with everything he saw around, and with much feeling and grace drank to the health and prosperity of the firemen. After this interchange of friendly feeling His Excellency was escorted by the officers of the Department to his carriage, amidst the cheers of the people, the band acknowledging his departure as they did his arrival. As to the arrangements, too much praise cannot be given to the Committee of Management. The wines, spirits and cigars, at both McNiff's and Bushell's bar, were all of first-rate quality and were well patronized throughout. The ice creams of Levi, and the more solid provisions of Young and White, were equally good and abundant. The dancing floor 50 feet square was the best we ever saw on such occasions, and reflects credit to Messrs Haywood and Jenkins, the carpenters, who built it. Messrs MacCrean, Gillon, Robertson and Marshall, were the umpires of the sports of which the following is a list:

We must not omit to compliment the band for the way they performed their duties as well as their music. Their labors were not the least of the day, and were discharged most satisfactorily. At 12, so as not to infringe upon the Sabbath, the National Anthem was played by the band with the people joining, which in the stillness of the night sounded really grand; and as the last notes died away the fairy scene was deserted, and all returned to their homes, having spent a day which will be remembered for its genuine hospitality and social feeling, and for having passed away without a single circumstance occurring to mar its harmony and pleasure.

FOR PORTLAND.—The steamship Active sailed on Saturday morning for Portland. She called alongside the China ship Sarah March in the outer harbor and took on board a number of coolies for the Oregon labor market. On board of the Active were a few passengers from this port, 240 tons of coal and a small general cargo.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.—The Enterprise arrived at noon on Saturday from New Westminster, with half a dozen passengers and a small express and mail.

The Ritualistic report is made and it is apparently a little more against the new lights than was the decree of the Arch. In essence and lights are declared to be innovations and are pronounced against. On the complaint of a certain number of parishioners the Bishop is to make an order for the discontinuance of the practice objected to. But an appeal is to lie from the Bishop to the Archbishop, and from his Grace again, in certain cases, to the Judicial Committee. It would seem that the friends of the Ritualists do not approve of the finding of the Commission; but how, if it was to do anything at all, it could well do less, or how it could leave much more in the hands of the clergy, we fail to see. If the clergyman can manage his flock there will be no complaints, and if he can manage his Bishop complaints will not be thought reasonable.

MEETINGS AT NEW WESTMINSTER.—The President of the New Westminster Municipal Council, in accordance with a request of the members of the Council, calls for a public meeting for the purpose of giving the ratepayers an opportunity of expressing their opinions about the desirability of electing a Municipal Council for the ensuing year, and also to consider the best steps to be taken by the property owners in order to obtain compensation from the Home Government for the depreciation in the value of property caused by the removal of the Seat of Government. The President of the Council, in compliance with a requisition of residents of the city and neighborhood, named Friday evening next on which to hold a meeting to consider the best course to be pursued in relation to the Government putting a stop to the "furnishing" operations of Mr Rodgers and Mr Miller upon certain reserves at Burrard Inlet.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The U.S.S. Pensacola sailed on Saturday morning for San Francisco. During her stay in port the officers and crew made themselves familiar with the citizens and their departure is regretted. Much attention was shown them, both by our British and American residents. We before mentioned that an entertainment had been offered the Admiral and officers by the British community. The U.S.S. Pensacola could not remain a sufficient time in port to accept of the compliment. The American part of our population, ever ready and willing to do honor in the proper quarter, we learn, were also anxious to mark their esteem for so worthy a personage as Admiral Thatcher, the greater part of whose life time has been spent in the service of his country.

THE SARAH MARCH, Capt. Morton, arrived in the outer harbor on Friday, but owing to some informality in her papers she did not get through the Customs till late on Saturday evening. She has been 46 days on the passage. Her cargo consists of 5800 bags rice, 80 boxes tea, 333 pkgs of Chinese merchandise; three boxes of opium. She also brought 259 Chinamen, women and children, of these 200 went down by the Active to work, it is reported on the Oregon Railroad. Our Chinese authorities assert they are going to the Kootenay mines; and between the two statements we cannot find out which is positively correct. The vessel comes from Hong Kong and is consigned to the Hudson Bay Company.

WHALING.—In a conversation with Mr. Arnold, who came down by the Douglas from the whaling expedition, we learn that so far as things have gone there is every appearance of the speculation being successful. Whale fishing in our waters has been too long neglected; and now that it will be shown what can be done, it is to be hoped the business will be followed up thoroughly. There is plenty of room for more companies to operate.

COMPLIMENTARY PRESENT.—His Excellency the Governor, with good taste, sent two baskets of Champagne to the firemen for the picnic, in which his health was heartily drunk. Few of us can confer great benefits upon our fellow creatures in life, but all of us can do something to add to the pleasures of every-day life.

CHANGED HANDS.—The dry goods stock of F. Mitchell, on Government street, has been disposed of. Mr Gray, late of New Westminster, who has been in attendance in that quarter, will resume business in the premises above mentioned.

CRICKET MATCH.—A match will be played in this city on Thursday next, between the Mainland Eleven and an Eleven from the fleet.

The Moneta arrived at San Francisco on the 24th. A despatch to this office states: the steamer Isabel has been awarded $1000 salvage in the Moneta case!!

FROM BURRARD INLET.—The schooner Matilda, laden with lumber, arrived here yesterday afternoon.

FOR COLDS, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, and all affections of the Lungs, take AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is sure to cure them.

THE APPEAL CASE of William Lyons is now set down to come before His Lordship the Chief Justice on Friday next.

FOR NANAIMO.—The Scout sailed on Saturday morning for Nanaimo to coal.

THE QUEEN, accompanied by Princess Louise, Prince Leopold and Princess Patricia, left Windsor Castle on the 18th May, at half past six o'clock, on route for Balmoral Castle. The suite in attendance consisted of the Hon. Emily Oatbaird, Lieutenant-General the Hon. C. Grey, Colonel H. and the Hon. Mrs. Ponsonby, Dr. Hoffmeister and Mr. Sahl.

TO THE LADIES.—Messrs J. H. Turner & Co., Government street, beg to inform the ladies of Victoria and vicinity, and the public in general, that they have made a great reduction in the price of the following goods: Ladies' Trimmed and Untrimmed Bonnets, Trimmed Hats Leghorn and Straw, Black Silk Jackets, Dress Muslins, Grenadines and Summer Skirts.—LONDON HOUSE, VICTORIA B. C.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

Eastern States.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Herald's Shanghai correspondent of June 6th says it was reported that the crew of the American vessel Gen Sherman, which was wrecked in Chinese waters, were beheld by the natives.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Amendments to the Alaska appropriation bill not having been concurred in, a committee of conference was asked.

Broomall asked leave to offer a concurrent resolution relative to final adjournment. Spaulding objected. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, said two or three weeks hence, the time sought for, would be early enough.

House proceeded to clear off business on the speakers table. It is believed that the President intends to veto the tax bill because it authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint Supervisors with power to remove officers appointed by the President. The President appointed Jacob B. Blair, Virginia Minister to Costa Rica, Wm F. Pedgion Secretary of Idaho.

The Senate after a long debate agreed to take a recess from Monday next to the third, Monday in September. In the Senate Sawyer Senator for South Carolina was admitted to his seat.

Europe.

PARIS, July 23.—The Corps Legislatif had a lively discussion over the proposition to restore the duties formerly imposed on resins imported from America. It was finally rejected.

LONDON, July 23.—In the House of Lords it was stated that the Earl of Malmesbury suggested that all great powers unite in an agreement to abandon the use of explosive bullets in time of war. Earl Malmesbury said the Government had reason to believe that Prussia had consented to the proposed international military commission. St Petersburg will consider the question.

The Commons passed a bill to purchase all the telegraph lines in the United Kingdom by the Government. The bill says the telegraphs are quite equal to the average harvests; reports state Russian crops are unfavorable.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Legal Tenders, $70@70 1/2. Flour Market steady; Superfine city brands $5 75@6 25; Extra in eke, $7 25@7 50.

Wheat—$1 85@1 90 for good shipping to choice.

Oats—$2 30@2 40.

Sailed, July 23d, bark Leonora, Port Blakely; 24th, steamer Continental, Astoria; bark Onward, Usualdy.

Our Fortifications.

The following letter has been addressed to the editor of the Times:—

"Sir,—Severe criticisms have been passed lately upon our fortifications, and, as two very able officers who served under me at the War Office—Colonels Jervois and Inglis—have been mentioned in connection with these censures, while my name is treated with exceptional forbearance, I wish, through your columns, to claim my full share of the responsibility for all works executed up to the date of my leaving the War Office in January last. The two principal causes of complaint are the imputed failures in the stability of some of the works, and the application of iron shields of an inefficient character. With regard to the first, I maintain, not only that the nature and number of these casualties have been a mere nothing compared with the gross accidents, if not in excess, are even advantageous. It would be easy to construct works that should never fail in stability, but it would be by the employment of an excess of means upon all occasions, and would, consequently, entail a greatly increased, and, in many cases, unnecessary expenditure; we might adopt such a system to be saved the chance of blame, and some men might be driven to it if unreasonable stress is laid on the circumstance; but it would be unworthy of any man who has any sense or courage to do so."

Mr Adderley was of opinion that the ultimate settlement of this important district, and its retention by the British Government, would be of the utmost importance to the country at large. He firmly believed that it would, after certain engineering difficulties in the vicinity of St Lawrence were overcome, form the easiest access to Vancouver Island and the Pacific. The Government earnestly desired to see the district settled, and were indifferent to the nationality of the settlers so long as they were only of the Anglo-Saxon race, and the British Empire was maintained under British sovereignty. Nothing, however, could be done until the pending negotiations had been concluded between the Hudson Bay Company and the Canadian Government, under which this district would eventually be placed, and which would set towards it as a mother country, and doubt largely assist in its settlement. Under these circumstances it was obviously unnecessary, and it would be wrong, for the Home Government to interfere in the negotiations.

Mr C. Fortescue was also of opinion that there was no need for any such inquiry as that proposed. No portion of the uncivilized globe had been more carefully inquired into than this territory, and all possible information which they required was at present in their hands.

Viscount Milton said the British Pacific colonies derived their food from the United States, in consequence of their being unable to draw the necessary resources from the interior, which was well calculated to supply them. There was consequently a growing desire to join America, and under the circumstances, he could not blame the colonists for desiring such a thing. The prosperity of these colonies was due to the individual enterprise of Americans, and if England wished to preserve them she must give something more than vague promises. (Hear, hear.)

Mr Cardwell was glad to learn that the Government had no intention to issue a commission on this subject. They could not derive any more information than they had, and to institute such an inquiry would be to reverse the settled policy of previous years.

thickness, but it is considerably stronger than solid plates 9 in. in thickness, and very much cheaper than solid plates of 12 in. even if a perfectly welded plate of such a thickness can be produced, which is very doubtful. It may be said, however, that this shield was pierced after five shots had been fired against it at 400 yards, which is true. But what does such a cannonading against a plate only 12 ft by 8 ft represent? Before I left the War Office, Colonel Jervois showed me a calculation he had made, based upon the proportion between the superficies of the front attacked at Fort Sumter and the number of times it was struck, and the superficies of one of the shields at Shoeburyness, which showed that a plate 12 ft by 8 ft, which resisted four shots, represented a bombardment from three to four times as severe as that sustained by Fort Sumter, when she beat off the American iron clads and Monitors, the fort mounting at the time guns very much inferior in calibre to those brought against it. This reasoning, however, would not apply in the case of a fort wholly of iron. In the one case the destruction of the shield merely silences the gun behind it; in the other it represents a breach made in the structure itself. For this reason, in the design of the Breakwater Fort at Plymouth, a thickness of 15 in. of iron was proposed. Experiments now to be made at Shoeburyness will show whether this amount of iron is sufficient or not. On the whole, it has always appeared to me that, while it may be necessary to erect shields of stronger construction upon a few influential points, those already furnished are made upon a right principle, and are sufficiently strong for all ordinary purposes, besides possessing the important quality of a construction which admits of being readily strengthened at any future period. Much misapprehension exists upon the subject of the application of iron to fortresses; and this misapprehension of the conditions of the problem, unless corrected by discussion, will cause a most unnecessary expenditure of the public money.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
"J. F. BURGESS"

The North-West in Parliament.

Sir H. Verney moved for an address, praying that Her Majesty's Government should be pleased to issue a Royal Commission to inquire into and report upon the capability for settlement and the best means of settling her Majesty's territory lying between Lake Superior and the Pacific, especially as to the provision for telegraphic and other communication through Her Majesty's dominions from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean.

Mr Kinnaird seconded the motion. Having served two years on the Hudson Bay committee, he could state that the bulk of the evidence showed that the Saskatchewan Valley, instead of being wild and sterile, was remarkably fertile, and afforded a most favorable opening for settlement. He could not help thinking that had the territory belonged to any other country it would not have been treated with such neglect. It might, and in all probability would, one day form the highway between Europe and China and Japan, and it would be to the lasting disgrace of this country should this magnificent territory be lost through the supineness of the Government. He would therefore support the motion for a commission, which would furnish to the public information of the highest importance, and which was urgently needed.

Mr Aytoun opposed the motion on the ground that the only justification for the settlement of this new territory would be that it would strengthen the country in a military point of view, or would be advantageous to the people at home by affording increased facilities for emigration. It was, however, quite notorious that the source of our military weakness in Canada was the vast extent of territory we possessed and its scattered population. To further extend our territory by the settlement of the Saskatchewan Valley would increase that weakness, while we had ample territory in British North America and Australia to supply all the demands of the country for surplus land as a field of emigration. Canada already cost us a million a year, and if the settlement of this territory was proceeded with, it would only

Mr Adderley was of opinion that the ultimate settlement of this important district, and its retention by the British Government, would be of the utmost importance to the country at large. He firmly believed that it would, after certain engineering difficulties in the vicinity of St Lawrence were overcome, form the easiest access to Vancouver Island and the Pacific. The Government earnestly desired to see the district settled, and were indifferent to the nationality of the settlers so long as they were only of the Anglo-Saxon race, and the British Empire was maintained under British sovereignty. Nothing, however, could be done until the pending negotiations had been concluded between the Hudson Bay Company and the Canadian Government, under which this district would eventually be placed, and which would set towards it as a mother country, and doubt largely assist in its settlement. Under these circumstances it was obviously unnecessary, and it would be wrong, for the Home Government to interfere in the negotiations.

Mr C. Fortescue was also of opinion that there was no need for any such inquiry as that proposed. No portion of the uncivilized globe had been more carefully inquired into than this territory, and all possible information which they required was at present in their hands.

Viscount Milton said the British Pacific colonies derived their food from the United States, in consequence of their being unable to draw the necessary resources from the interior, which was well calculated to supply them. There was consequently a growing desire to join America, and under the circumstances, he could not blame the colonists for desiring such a thing. The prosperity of these colonies was due to the individual enterprise of Americans, and if England wished to preserve them she must give something more than vague promises. (Hear, hear.)

Mr Cardwell was glad to learn that the Government had no intention to issue a commission on this subject. They could not derive any more information than they had, and to institute such an inquiry would be to reverse the settled policy of previous years.

Sir H. Verney then consented to withdraw the motion.

HOLLO WAY'S OINTMENT.—A fair trial is all that is asked to prove the sterling and superior merits of this Ointment, and to demonstrate how much more successful it is in curing old ulcers, inveterate sores, and disfiguring eruptions than any other application. When properly used it lessens the inflammation, which invades parts adjacent to the wound or ulcer, whereby much local pain is immediately assuaged, and, in the course of an hour or two, satisfactory results invariably follow, which will steadily advance to a thorough and permanent cure. This treatment is much at variance with the old-fashioned views of cauterizing, blistering, leeching, &c., has by common consent been pronounced to be the greatest blessing to persons thus afflicted.

LIQUOR CARBONIS DETERGENTS

OR

[Extract from the Lancet, Dec. 1, 1886]

Liq. Carbonis Detergens.—We are very optical of the value of these remedies, and it is in a special way that we tried the liq. carbonis detergent. It is represented to be a concentrated alcoholic solution of the constituents of coal tar, and to contain all the active ingredients of the tar, to wit: benzene, naphthalene, and phenol. The addition of water, with agitation, makes a durable emulsion, in which the tar remains in a state of suspension, and is equally available for medicinal purposes. The experience of the preparation is very satisfactory indeed. In our hands it has been a most effective agent in the case of various skin diseases, especially of the chronic eruptions, such as eczema, psoriasis, and lichen, which had resisted all other kinds of treatment, and which went well under the application of the liq. carbonis detergent. We esteem it a very valuable addition to our list of skin remedies, and worthy of a very extended trial by the profession. In the above classes of disease, and in various others, such as tinea, etc., the preparation is put into the form of soap.

PURE COAL TAR SOAP
